Clatsop County Offices Closed to the Public Today, Services Still Available

(Astoria, OR) — Due to a National Weather Service Portland forecast for freezing rain this afternoon, Clatsop County has closed county office buildings to the public today, Thursday, February 13.

“Our staff will still be available to provide assistance; however, we encourage the public to avoid all travel during hazardous conditions,” said Don Bohn, Clatsop County Manager.

While offices are closed to the public, county services remain available by phone or email until 5 p.m.
