

NEWS RELEASE

March 7, 2024

Media contact: Elizabeth Gharst, elizabeth.gharst@oya.oregon.gov, 971-718-2806

Police still searching for three youth who escaped MacLaren Youth Correctional Facility

WOODBURN, Ore. — Law enforcement are still searching for three youth escaped from MacLaren Youth Correctional Facility in Woodburn at about 9:12 p.m. on Feb. 18. Warrants have been issued for their arrest, and law enforcement are actively searching for the youth.

The youth are:

- Angel Diaz-Barrera, age 19, adjudicated for robbery 1 and carry/use of a dangerous weapon in Marion County. Height 5'5". Weight 142 pounds. Angel has black hair, brown eyes, and small tattoos on his left hand and under his left and right eyes.
- Julian Diaz-Navarro, age 19, adjudicated for attempted assault 1, carry/use dangerous weapon in Marion County. Height 5'6". Weight 140 pounds. Julian has black hair, brown eyes, and small tattoos under his left eye, above his left brow, on his left hand, and on his right middle finger.
- Xavier Swimm, age 21, adjudicated for attempted assault 2, aggravated harassment in Multnomah County. Height 5'8". Weight 115 pounds. Xavier has brown hair, blue eyes, and multiple tattoos on his hands and chest.

Diaz-Barrera and Diaz-Navarro are from Salem; Swimm is from Portland. If anyone sees these youth, please call 911. If someone has information about the youths' whereabouts, they should call Oregon State Police at 503-375-3555 (reference case # SP 24-054230).