Hillsboro Career Expo connects Job Seekers and Employers to workforce development services

HILLSBORO, Ore. — WorkSource Oregon is hosting a free job and resource career expo in Hillsboro next week. The event will feature more than 50 employers ready to hire and free services, including workshops, professional headshots, and other resources to support job seekers and employers.

WorkSource Oregon is a partnership of community organizations and state agencies, including the Oregon Employment Department, that provides employment and training assistance to job seekers and businesses across the state. The goal of this event is to support local workers who have been or may be impacted by recent layoffs, as well as veterans who are returning from active duty.

Job and Resource Career Expo

Wednesday, Sept. 24, 2025

10 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Wingspan Conference Center

801 NE 34th Ave., Hillsboro

Highlights include:

- Meet more than 50 employers actively hiring in administration, engineering, information technology, finance, project management and more.

- Get a free professional headshot to use on LinkedIn or job applications.
- Participate in free workshops designed to help job seekers strengthen their skills.
- Connect with staff from Trade Act, Unemployment Insurance, WorkSource Oregon, and other programs who will answer questions in English and Spanish.

Admission, workshops, and parking are free. Registration is optional but encouraged.
