Douglas County Fairgrounds Warns Vendors of Fraudulent Christmas Craft Fair Email

(Douglas County, Ore.) – The Douglas County Fairgrounds is alerting the public about a fraudulent email currently circulating that falsely claims to represent the Douglas County Fairgrounds and Douglas County Fairgrounds staff.

The email solicits vendors for the Annual Douglas County Christmas Craft Fair, scheduled for December 4–6, 2026, and requests payment for booth spaces, food truck participation, and electrical hookups. This solicitation is fraudulent and is not affiliated with or authorized by the Douglas County Fairgrounds or the Douglas County Christmas Craft Fair.

The Douglas County Fairgrounds does not collect vendor application fees or booth payments through unsolicited emails, third-party payment links, or online payment links.

We urge anyone who receives this email to NOT respond, click on any links, provide personal or financial information, or submit payment.

All legitimate vendor applications and communications for the Douglas County Christmas Craft Fair are handled directly through the Douglas County Fairgrounds using our established application and payment procedures.

If you have responded to this email, provided personal or financial information, or submitted payment, we encourage you to contact your local law enforcement agency to report the incident. You should also contact your financial institution immediately if you have provided payment information or sent money.

The Douglas County Fairgrounds takes this matter seriously and wants to ensure our vendors, small businesses, and community members are protected from fraudulent activity.

For questions or to verify the legitimacy of vendor communications, please contact the Douglas County Fairgrounds directly at (541) 440-4396 or visit our office at 2110 SW Frear Street, Roseburg, OR 97471.
